

Why eDocsOnline.com?

eDocsOnline.com is a web-based application, so there is NO hardware or software to buy, install or maintain. All you need is a web browser, the Internet connection plus eDocsOnline.com account and in 5 minutes you have an affordable private storage and collaboration solution.

There are many different ways to store your documents, to re-locate them and to distribute them to others. But, most of these solutions are either expensive and complicated or too limited. eDocsOnline.com provides a simple solution to your information management problems by using the web - the great tool of the 21st century that gives a dramatic advance over traditional client/server technology.

There are five reasons to choose eDocsOnline.com:

- ✓ No hardware or software to buy
Due to the online nature of the service, there is no hardware or software to buy, install or maintain. Flexible pricing plans provide absolutely predictable cash flow and protect from any erratic expenditures. This helps with budgeting and financial forecasting. Don't forget that the entire cost could potentially be expensed for tax purposes (consult your tax advisor).
- ✓ Quick Set up and Deployment
The service sets up in 5 minute and becomes fully functional the very day - unlike the months typically required to implement local solutions.
You don't need to load workstation software or have special training. Simply ensure that you have either direct or indirect Internet connection and a web browser.
- ✓ Document Service for both Internal and External Users
Unlike local systems optimized for internal customers only, eDocsOnline.com offers solutions targeted to both internal and external users. It is ideal for sharing documents and large files, such as presentations, manuals, videos and spreadsheets with clients, vendors and other business partners. Besides, external users can participate in discussions via attached comments and be involved in the notification process without having to pay a subscription fee or purchase costly firewall or VPN.
- ✓ Ongoing Support and Product Improvements
eDocsOnline.com provides the hosting and the management of the servers. Our experienced team monitors the data center 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, ensuring server availability and network connection. We effect automatic backup on a nightly basis and are always ready to answer any question and to help with any problem.
All your comments and feedbacks are greatly appreciated and carefully investigated. We value your opinion and constantly enhance the service provided.
- ✓ Simplicity
eDocsOnline.com application is self-explanatory and self-intuitive with extensive help features and online tutorials. It is interface friendly and does not require any special knowledge or training. A basic knowledge of the Internet is enough to use eDocsOnline.com.
